MHS 8th grade student, Annalea Fulce beautifully photographed the Yosemite bridge, receiving honorable mention in this year's California Streaming Photography Contest!

This is a picture of an old covered bridge over the Merced River in Yosemite National Park. It reminded me of the history of humanity and the detail and time people took to access a beautiful place. The bridge was built in 1857 by Galen Clark but was not turned into a covered bridge until 1879. It is one of the last twelve covered bridges in California. If not for this bridge and the people who built it, humanity may have never seen the extensive beauty of Yosemite Valley.

MHS End of the Year Water Trip Camp Oakhurst Tuesday, June 1 • 1:00 pm - 3:00pm

Unfortunately, The Island Waterpark will not be open in time for an end of the year trip. Instead, we have a fun day planned at Camp Oakhurst! We will have access to the pool and the big slide so bring your bathing suits. Bring a lunch for a picnic in the grass. Camp Oakhurst does not require you to wear a mask, but you will need to social distance in your family group while at the facility. The fee will be $7 per student. All immediate family members are welcome (even if they are not enrolled at MHSC). Please sign up and pay at the front desk by Tuesday, May 18th. Hope you will come and celebrate the end of the year with us!

Lottery Drawing Thursday, May 13 • 1:00 pm

Mountain Home & Glacier High School have a waiting list of students/families who want to enroll in our schools for the 2021-22 School Year. A public lottery is being held because we have more students wanting to attend than we have space to accommodate. If you know of anyone wanting to enroll at either school, please let them know that we'd need their information before May 13th in order for them to be included in the lottery.

Mountain Home School's Curriculum Fair May 3 - May 14

New Book Review

Brave Like That

By Lindsey Stoddard

Sometimes the bravest thing is just to be who you are. Cyrus was just a baby when he was left on the steps of the Northfield firehouse. But growing up surrounded by heroes didn’t make Cyrus brave like his firefighter, football star dad or the firefighters who helped raise him.

Instead, he’s as skittish and scared as the stray dog who parks his head on Cyrus’s shoulder and earns the perfect name – Parker. Cyrus’s dad’s strict no-pet rule means Parker can’t stay. With football tryouts around the corner, a dog would only be a distraction.

But a distraction is exactly what Cyrus wants: from the fact that he’s the only sixth grader who can’t read a whole book by himself, from the way his two best friends are treating the new kid, and from how he’s rather tap his feet to a record than score enough touchdowns to break one.

Cyrus feels as out of place as the stray dog who captured his heart. But if fitting in means pretending to be someone he’s not, maybe this is the year Cyrus can decide to be his own kind of normal – and there’s nothing braver than that.

POEMS OF THE MONTH

May

Now children may
Go out of doors,
Without their coats,
To Candy stores.

The apple branches
And the pear
May float their blossoms
Through the air.

And Daddy may
Get out his hoe
To plant tomatoes
In a row,

And, afterwards,
May lazily
Look at some baseball
On TV.

by John Updike

A Prayer in Spring

*Oh, give us pleasure in the flowers today;
And give us not to think so far away
As the uncertain harvest; keep us here
All simply in the springing of the year.*

*Oh, give us pleasure in the orchard white,
Like nothing else by day, like ghosts by night;
And make us happy in the happy bees,
The swarm dilating round the perfect trees.*

*And make us happy in the darting bird
That suddenly above the bees is heard,
The meteor that thrusts in with needle bill,
And off a blossom in mid air stands still.*

*For this is love and nothing else is love,
The which it is reserved for God above
To sanctify to what far ends He will,
But which it only needs that we fulfill.*
